

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 16-1087

United States of America

Plaintiff - Appellee

v.

Christopher Michael Fisher

Defendant - Appellant

Appeal from United States District Court for the Southern District of Iowa - Des Moines

Submitted: June 23, 2016

Filed: June 28, 2016

[Unpublished]

Before MURPHY, BOWMAN, and BENTON, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Christopher Michael Fisher appeals the sentence imposed by the district court¹ following a revocation hearing. Having jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1291, this court affirms.

¹The Honorable James E. Gritzner, United States District Judge for the Southern District of Iowa.

At the hearing, Fisher admitted that he had violated the conditions of his supervised release. The district court revoked supervised release and sentenced him to 12 months and one day in prison—a term within the recommended Guidelines revocation range—and 48 months of supervised release. Fisher asserts that the sentence is substantively unreasonable.

This court finds no abuse of discretion. See United States v. Miller, 557 F.3d 910, 917 (8th Cir. 2009) (discussing abuse-of-discretion review for substantive reasonableness of revocation sentence); United States v. Petreikis, 551 F.3d 822, 824 (8th Cir. 2009) (applying presumption of reasonableness to revocation sentence within Guidelines range).

The judgment is affirmed. Counsel’s motion to withdraw is granted.
